

I am cuently signed up on the do not call list. Before I signed up I could not eat dinner because of all the calls coming in, my answering machine was full of hang ups and unsolicited calls, saturdays were the worst when the phone would ring early in the morning. Under no means should this be taken away from or weakened.

Thank you